

PARIS IS IN A PANIC BECAUSE OF A STORM

TORNADO STRIKES THE FRENCH CAPITAL.

Many Persons Killed and Injured in the Most Populous Part of the City Heavy Damage to Property—Storm Lasts But a Minute But Does Quick Work.

Paris, Sept. 11.—A violent tornado swept over parts of this city at 2:30 o'clock Thursday afternoon. The prefecture of police has issued a statement that only one person was killed outright in the cyclone. A large ward in the hotel Dieu is full of the victims, two of whom died and several there and in other hospitals are in a precarious condition.

It is a curious fact that the cyclone chiefly affected the small area lying around the Palais de Justice and the Hotel de Ville.

M. Meline, the premier, visited the scenes of the devastation in company with M. Lepine, the prefect of police. A member of the staff of Le Temps thus describes the spectacle at the moment when the storm broke: "From the omnibus on which I was riding I could see down the Quai des Orfèvres and the Quai des Grands-Augustins. I suddenly saw what appeared to be a tall pillar of smoke advancing from a distance. I imagined that a large fire had broken out, but almost directly I saw that trees were being snapped and countless chimneys hurled to the ground. But almost instantly the storm passed away. We were not touched, but the quais were impassible and a scene of indescribable confusion followed."

Numerous newspaper kiosks were overturned and the inmates injured. The roof of the Opera Comique was blown down. The Ambique Comique and the Folies Dramatiques theatres were both damaged. Twenty-nine horses were killed. Eight beer houses were wrecked. There was not the slightest disturbance in the Champs Elysee, the Madeleine, the Arc de Triomphe and the bourse districts beyond a heavy rain.

The number of minor casualties and injuries to persons is large and further reports are constantly being received. Over fifty injured have thus far been reported. Several men and women had their skulls fractured by the falling of some gates, behind which they had sought shelter from the storm. A cabman, who had taken refuge in his cab, and his horses were killed together and the cab demolished.

At least a dozen persons were carried bodily into the Seine from bridges and from the quais, and were rescued with great difficulty, several being injured and left in a critical condition, so that they had to be taken to the hospitals.

The damage to property was widespread and serious. The first tempest of wind, which did most of the damage, was immediately succeeded by torrents of rain, and cellars all over Paris are flooded. The tornado lasted about one minute, but considerable destruction was caused on and about the Pont Neuf, the Place due Chatelet, the Observatoire, the Tour St. Jacques and elsewhere in the neighborhood.

From the Quai St. Michael to beyond the Pont Neuf, every tree was uprooted, many barges were sunk and a number of small boats were swamped. The crews of the barges, however, succeeded in escaping. One of the laundry boats of the Seine, where thirty laundresses were at work, was sunk, and the women were saved with the greatest difficulty. The scaffolding of the courtyard of the Sainte Chapelle was blown away, and every pane of glass in the side of the Palace of Justice facing the river was smashed by uprooted trees, etc. All the omnibuses struck by the cyclone were upset and their passengers more or less injured.

Washington, Sept. 11.—The September report of the statistician of the department of agriculture shows a decline in the condition of corn from August statement of five points, or from 96 per cent in August to 91 in September. The general condition of wheat, considering both winter and spring varieties, when harvested was 74.6, against 75.4 in 1895 and 83.7 in 1894. Addresses were made by the Rev. J. S. Cumming of Moline, Bishop Arnett and the Rev. George W. Gaines, D. D., of Chicago. New Orleans, Sept. 11.—It is believed the defalcation that caused the failure of the Union National bank will reach $500,000. There has been quite a run on the bank for some time, so that the deposits still in its charge will not reach $100,000.

CLEVELAND ON THE ISSUES.

Letter Defining His Position Said to Be Ready for Publication.

Washington, Sept. 11.—A member of the cabinet is credited with saying that President Cleveland has written a letter, which will be made public in a day or two, in which he discusses the great issue of the pending campaign and clearly defines his attitude in support of the national democratic ticket nominated at Indianapolis. This cabinet officer predicted that the letter would be a vigorous repudiation of the silver convention in Chicago and a strong endorsement of the Palmer and Buckner ticket. The letter is believed to be addressed to Senator Caffrey of Louisiana, who presided over the Indianapolis convention, or to Mr. Bynum, chairman of the national democratic committee.

TO CALL ON M'KINLEY.

Sixty Cars Engaged to Carry Railway Men from Chicago to Canton.

Canton, Ohio, Sept. 11.—The employees of the railroads centering in Chicago are making extensive arrangements to come to Canton Saturday, Sept. 19, to call on Major McKinley. Already sixty passenger cars have been ordered from the Fort Wayne company for the trip. A delegation of 1,000 republicans from Somerset, Pa., will start on a pilgrimage to Canton next Tuesday morning. The employees in the general offices of the Pennsylvania lines in Pittsburgh are also expected to call on McKinley this afternoon.

Poison for Twenty People.

Des Moines, Ia., Sept. 11.—The wedding of J. C. Toombs and Miss Emma Henderson took place at the village of Bondurant Wednesday at noon. About seventy-five guests were present. An hour after dinner twenty of them were in agonies, caused by poison in the food served at the wedding dinner. The cause is unknown, but is believed to have been chicken pie cooked in copper dishes. About twenty of the guests were seriously ill. The village physicians were unable to care for all of them, and others were sent for to this city. It is stated that all will probably recover, with the exception of C. A. O'Brien, Mrs. B. F. Rothrock and Mrs. Reed Henderson, who are still in a critical condition.

John R. Gentry won three straight heats, time, 2:03 3/4, 2:01 1/2, 2:05 1/4. Time by quarters—First heat: First quarter, 32 1/2; half-mile, 1:03 1/4; three-quarters, 1:35; mile, 2:03 3/4. Second heat: Quarter, 31; half, 1:01 1/4; three-quarters, 1:32; mile, 2:01 1/4. Third heat: Quarter, 32; half, 1:04 1/4; three-quarters, 1:36; mile, 2:05 3/4.

Hill Objects to Instructions.

Albany, N. Y., Sept. 11.—United States Senator Hill telegraphed as follows to Norton Chase, chairman of the Albany county democratic convention: "I observe in the morning papers that I have been elected delegate from the Third Albany district to the state convention, under instructions to vote for the endorsement of the Chicago platform and candidates. This action is taken in opposition to my wishes and judgment as expressed to you yesterday, and I decline to accept the election upon the conditions imposed or upon any conditions which would restrict my freedom at Buffalo to act in such manner as I consider best for the interest of my party."

Murderer of Attorney Taylor.

Brazil, Ind., Sept. 11.—The murderer of Attorney Robert R. Taylor, who was found dead near Clay City Wednesday, proves to be Greif Hill, one of his tenants, according to the story of Hill's daughter. Hill lived on Taylor's farm, and a quarrel arose regarding the rent Tuesday evening, when Hill secured his rifle and shot his landlord through the head, then, blinding his hands, drove him to a cluster of woods several miles away and left him. Hill is still at large. Taylor was a bachelor and wealthy.

Taggart Takes Holt's Place.

Indianapolis, Ind., Sept. 11.—The democratic state committee met Thursday and accepted the resignation of Sterling R. Holt, chairman, and Rufus Magee, member of the committee from the Eleventh district. Thomas Taggart, mayor of this city, was offered the chairmanship early in the day, but declined to accept it. The officials say that the plant will operate as long as the business situation permits.

SPEAKER REED ENDS MAINE'S CAMPAIGN

VOTERS ARE NOW READY FOR ELECTION.

Thomas B. Reed Gives the Finishing Touches at Portland—Captain Tanner Recovers New Hampshire Gold Men—Fusion in Texas—T. V. Powderly Favors Gold Standard.

Portland, Me., Sept. 11.—Thomas B. Reed closed the republican campaign for gold and protection in Portland Thursday night by addressing an enthusiastic audience in the city hall. Over 100 political meetings were held in the state last night, and the campaign is at fever heat. Nothing like the intensity of these closing days ever was known in Maine before in a political canvass.

Uncle Sam: "You will never get there, my boy, on that machine."

—Detroit Free Press.

"I say to you, that if ever a nation could see from its own experience that it pays to be honest, it is the United States of America. The experience of the world has proved to us beyond peradventure that the attempt to issue government money every time a speculative period has set in and burst, means destruction and ruin, out of which there is no way except through bankruptcy. Great as our nation is, we cannot make something out of nothing, except by the use of natural means, and we cannot by any possibility do more than to set the laws of nature at work. Let us recognize our limitations. It is good sense to notice that a stone wall is a stone wall when it is in front of us. I fancy that no one would regard it of any advantage for the United States to pay off half its debt by sinking to a silver basis.

"One of the government officials connected with the agricultural department says the consumption of wheat has fallen off 25 per cent in this country on account of the hard times. If an essential like that loses 25 per cent of its consumption, it goes a good way toward explaining why the farmer is not making much money at present on wheat. No, my friends, recollect that, after all, the dollar gets cheapest when business is lively. Why, when my house is worth $5,000, and it is hard times, and there gets to be good times and confidence is restored, that house will sell for $10,000; it is because the dollars become cheaper, isn't it? It has become so without any reference to coinage whatever. It was so in 1873, when business became brisk, and it went on in that way, and it will do again if we ever give it a chance."

Tanner Is Himself Again.

Chicago, Sept. 11.—John R. Tanner, who has been at West Baden, Ind., recovering from his Quincy accident, will come to this city next Monday to begin his campaign in earnest. For a week he will be in the hands of the republican county central committee and will speak in and around Chicago. The next week he will start through the state. His itinerary has not been made yet, for it is not certain that he will be able to stand the strain of a continuous campaign.

Fuse On Local Issues.

Raleigh, N. C., Sept. 11.—The republican and populist committees have accepted fusion on all state officers except governor, lieutenant governor and auditor. These will be arranged later. They also fused on congressional nominations, giving the republicans four districts in which the nominees are all supporting McKinley and the gold standard, and the populists five districts.

Concord, N. H., Sept. 11.—The gold-standard democrats held a state convention here Thursday. Resolutions were adopted endorsing the gold standard and democratic convention held at Indianapolis.

THE OHIO DEMOCRATS DECIDE ON FUSION

POPULISTS UNITE WITH THEM ON STATE ISSUE.

Electoral Ticket Nominated at Ottumwa Will Be Supported—Pennsylvania Democrats Meet—Republicans of Colorado to Support Bryan—Harrity Is Not Deposed—Political Gossip.

Des Moines, Iowa, Sept. 11.—The populist state convention, in session here Thursday, unanimously endorsed the state and electoral ticket nominated by the democratic state convention at Ottumwa Aug. 12, which made Gen. J. B. Weaver and Horace Boies candidates for electors-at-large. The fusion was complete in every respect. Not a voice was against it. The Ottumwa ticket was made part of the resolution and adopted on motion of Gen. Weaver.

cratic, the people's, the republican and the silver parties met here Thursday for the purpose of arranging a fusion on state officers. The indications are that a joint ticket will be put out by the democrats, populists and silverites, and that the republicans will have an independent ticket. The democratic electoral ticket has been endorsed by the republicans, the populists and the silver conventions, insuring a solid front for Bryan and Sewall, whatever the outcome of the attempt to secure a fusion silver state ticket.

Name Botkin for Governor.

Helena, Mont., Sept. 11.—The afternoon session of the republican state convention Thursday was a most stormy one, and at one time it looked as if the gold men would walk out of the hall. The trouble arose over the report of the committee on permanent organization. There was a majority report signed by sixteen members of the committee, and two minority reports, one signed by five and the other by two members. The majority report was adopted after several hours of heated debate. Lieut.-Gov. A. C. Botkin was nominated for governor.

Carson, Nev., Sept. 11.—The republican state convention met here Thursday. Council-in-chief—L. P. Kennedy, ex-officio president; F. W. Heine of Nebraska, Fred Meyers of Colorado.

Indianapolis was selected as the next place of meeting.

NOT MUCH FOR CREDITORS.

Assets of the Ramsay Bank at Carlyle, Ill., Rapidly Disappearing.

Carlyle, Ill., Sept. 11.—Local creditors of the Ramsay bank, which closed its doors in November, 1894, after the death of the late state treasurer, are thoroughly aroused over the allowance of three large claims filed Wednesday by Ramsay's widow.

It seems that the deceased politician and banker had a penchant for borrowing money from his wife. When she married him her property was worth considerable. The amount claimed by her is $53,612.86. She produces as evidence promissory notes and certificates of deposits. One note given October 12, 1883, was originally for $5,000, but compound interest has increased it in value to $12,163.37. These recent claims increase the total amount to be paid out of the estate here to over $160,000, with visible assets of $126,000. The above liabilities of course do not include the amount claimed by the Chicago bondsmen, which is $120,000.

NO THIRD TICKET IN BADGER STATE

GOLD DEMOCRATS DECIDE TO TAKE NO ACTION.

General Bragg Declined To Be The Nominee—Endorse The Silver Slate, But Leave The Gold Men To Vote as They See Fit—Riot at Ashland.

Milwaukee, Wis., Sept. 11.—At a late hour Thursday night the state central committee of the gold democrats, after a long secret session, decided not to place a gold ticket in the field. The declaration of Gen. Bragg to lead, coupled with the fact that reports from a number of committeemen indicated that the movement had not met with favor in various sections of the state, led the committee to vote in favor of abandoning the idea of a state ticket. It was decided not to endorse the regular state ticket, but to leave the members of the gold democratic party free to vote as they saw fit. The various congressional committees are empowered to nominate candidates in districts where it is deemed advisable to do so.

Bavarian Rioters in Jail.

Ashland, Wis., Sept. 11.—Seven men were brought to Ashland by the officers, charged with riot at the Bavarian settlement near Glidden over school matters. They were held in $700 bonds. Bonds were given and a hearing was set for Sept. 16.

PRESIDENT IS ANGRY.

It Is Said That He Will Discharge Officers Who Work for Silver.

Washington, Sept. 11.—The assertion is made positively that all the minor officials who are now openly talking for Bryan will have to give up their jobs. It is said that Mr. Cleveland is not in a frame of mind to tolerate what he regards as a reflection and a reproach upon the administration by persons who are employed under it.

The campaign of Bryan is more directly an attack upon the policy of the administration than upon any policy that the republican party has been responsible for. So Mr. Cleveland feels it to be, and officials under him who will take the stump or talk through the press in support of Bryan and in criticism of the bond issues and the general policy of the treasury cannot expect to escape his resentment.

Doubt is expressed that resignations will be asked for, but direct dismissal is expected. It is said authoritatively that there will be no occasion for surprise at any time if the offending officials receive peremptory notices of dismissal.

Fitzsimmons Challenges Corbett.

New York, Sept. 11.—Robert Fitzsimmons and Martin Julian gave a dinner Thursday evening at which James J. Corbett was challenged by Fitzsimmons. Dave Holland was made temporary stakeholder, and $5,000 forfeit was placed in his hands. It is to remain up for thirty days. Fitzsimmons proposes that the fight be to a finish for $5,000 or $10,000 a side and the largest purse offered. When Corbett was notified at Asbury Park of Fitzsimmons' challenge he simply laughed and said: "Fitzsimmons is bluffing again. I chased his nearly two years to get him to fight."

Expelled from the Church.

Terre Haute, Ind., Sept. 11.—The northwestern Indiana Methodist conference Thursday performed an unpleasant task in short order when it in effect expelled from the church J. H. Wilson, who until two months ago was the presiding elder of the Valparaiso district. The conference spent the day listening to the reports of ministers of their year's work in the respect of collections. The general showing was that hard times had diminished the contributions of church members.

Federal Employee Short $3,000.

Detroit, Mich., Sept. 11.—Charles Bryan, the cashier of the custom house, is short $3,000. He was appointed to his position by John B. Maloney shortly after Cleveland gave Maloney the custom house. It was known that Bryan was speculating on the board of trade and a special treasury agent was sent to examine his books. Deputy Smith admits that Bryan has not turned over certain money received, but says he has promised to do so.

London, Sept. 11. The Press association announces that a private dispatch from Constantinople confirms the rumor that the deposition of the sultan is being seriously debated by the powers, and important developments are expected with the action of the Sheikh Ul-Islam, Mehmed Djemal Eddin Effendi, whose fiat is necessary for the deposition.

Another New Orleans Bank Fails.

New Orleans, La., Sept. 11.—The Mutual National bank has suspended. The capital stock of the bank was only $200,000 and its line of deposits very small. It had been regarded as weak for a long time. The bank is said to have sufficient securities to liquidate its entire indebtedness. It is stated that leading banks of this city hold, in cash assets, an amount which is twice as large as that usual at this season of the year and are perfectly sound financially.

Judge Henry N. Blake, the other nominee, is one of the present judges, and was the first chief justice of the Montana supreme court.

The honor accorded Mr. Smith is a high one, and his many Janesville friends will extend congratulations.

THE LEAF MARKET MORE LIVELY

Calls for Samples Give an Indication—Rain Was Beneficial

There is a slight change for the better in the local tobacco market conditions, says the Janesville Leaf. There are a few lots being sold from the warehouses, but no riding of any consequence is being done. Among the transactions reported are 90 cases of fillers and 30 cases of '91 sold by F. S. Baines; 30 cases of '93 and '94 sold by S. B. Heddles and 20 cases of '93 bought by Robert Erler. George H. Rumrill, J. L. and M. F. Greene and Rudolph, Haviland & Son have sold several small lots.

Some packers report the call for many samples, and it is generally thought that business will not become very active until after the election, still there is something being done every week, and will be as long as cigars are made.

Numerous rains since our last report have had a beneficial effect upon the hanging tobacco, and it is curing out nicely. In fact the weather is perfect. The harvest is entirely finished without frost.

Comrade Henry Johnson, of Sherman, Texas, Says That the Lone Star State Electoral Vote Will Go For McKinley—Big Rally at The Line City.

Beloit, Sept. 11.—[Special]—At the meeting of the Fourth Wisconsin Battery in this city yesterday, John Kline of Beloit was elected president; J. J. Wallace of Chicago, vice president and W. L. Austin of Beloit, secretary and treasurer. Comrade Henry Johnson of Sherman, Texas, who, ever since the war was thought to be dead, surprised the veterans by attending the reunion. Mr. Johnson is an enthusiastic republican and says that by the fusion of the republicans and populists the Lone Star state will give its electoral vote to McKinley and Hobart. He believes a majority of the democrats of his state are for sound money and he knows, as Texas is a wool-growing state, that a very large majority of its people are in favor of protection, and they are fighting this campaign out on the lines of protection vs. free trade.

Fowler Makes an Address

Beloit, Sept. 11.—[Special]—The second campaign speech in this city which was heard last night at the opera house, was a record breaker in the matter of attendance despite the hard rain that prevailed. Hon. C. N. Fowler, of New Jersey was the orator, and every space in the house that would hold a human being was occupied. Fully twelve hundred people crowded into the structure which ordinarily seats but eight hundred. Mr. Fowler was a member of Beloit College class of '76, is a brother-in-law of J. E. Heg, of the Lake Geneva Herald, and is the representative from his district in Congress. Being chairman of the House committee on banks and banking, his talk was confined almost wholly to financial question and to say that he handled his subject in a convincing manner is putting it mildly. For over two hours he laid down fact after fact and then clinched them with undisputable proofs.

The McKinley marching club, an organization of active young republicans made its first appearance last night, parading from the Armory to the hall headed by their martial band of ten pieces and all wearing the gold hat.

THE DEALERS ARE BUYING COAL.

They Evidently Believe That the Present Price Will Hold.

Local coal dealers have placed their orders for large shipments of coal, which shows, that in their opinion, the present high prices of coal will stand. Twenty cars have arrived in the city this week over the St. Paul road from Milwaukee, for our local dealers, who think that the present $8 mark is the lowest retail price that will be quoted this year.

TWELVE HANDS TRANSFERRED.

Low Water Causes a Change at the Cotton Mills.

On account of low water, a portion of the lower cotton mill machinery has been shut down, and about a dozen hands who have been operating the machines, have been transferred to the upper mill. With the exception of these twelve employees, no other departments are yet running at the upper mill, and there is now no telling where the plant will start. The water in the Monterey race for this time of the year is exceedingly low.

JAIL SHELTERS FEW BOARDERS

Low Water Mark Reached During the Last Week.

The Rock County jail this week has been a lonesome place and business in the prisoner line has been the quietest since Sheriff Appleby's inauguration. During the entire week but two prisoners have been received and both were drunks, one from Beloit and one from Edgerton.

WORKS TO COST CITY $224,974.23

Expert Card's Report Gives the Present Purchase Price.

If the city buys the water works on the report of J. C. Card, the price paid will be $224,974.23, that being the sum his report shows the plant to be worth under the franchise provision. In summing up his report he says the net earnings of the company which do not equal or exceed the interest amounts to $69,695.62.

The total cost of construction and seven per cent annual interest thereon on August 1, 1895 amounts to $294,669.85. Deducting the amount of the net earnings, which do not equal or exceed the interest from the total cost of construction, with the interest added leaves $224,974.23, which according to Mr. Card, is the approximate amount which the city should have paid for the plant on August 1st, 1895.

No additions having been made since the above date, the sum which the city should pay at the present time, should it desire to purchase, would not materially differ from Mr. Card's report.

A Sale For Friday and Saturday.

The special feature we made from the outset in the dress goods sale we started last Monday was the 25 cent kind. We bought a great many patterns of goods that we never have trouble in selling at 50 cents and we have knocked down to 25 cents. Friday and Saturday we will start a special sale of 50 cent dress goods, those that usually bring $1.50, $1.25, $1.00 and 75c a yard, will be sold for the one price—50 cents a yard. It is not necessary to enter into a long talk on the quality of these goods and honesty of the statement. Every lady knows that when we speak of sales, especially low prices on high class goods, things are just as represented when they look them up at our store. We invite you most cordially to look over the 50c lot of dress goods. Bort Bailey & Co.

TOOK A POLL OF BRYAN'S WARD

Result Shows Two to One Majority For Good Money

Janesville republicans read the following dispatch in The Chicago Tribune, with interest:

Augusta, Me., Sept. 8.—[Special].—Chairman Manley of the republican state committee received this morning a letter from a member of the Nebraska Republican State committee, dated Sept. 4, of which the following is an extract:

"Of course we do not expect to carry Nebraska by as large a majority as you will carry Maine, but we shall carry it for McKinley. There is not the least doubt of that. We shall carry the state with from 5,000 to 12,000.

"About a week or ten days after Bryan was nominated there was a great deal of enthusiasm and there might have been a chance for Bryan to have carried Nebraska, but the tables have turned and the tide reached its height ten days after the nomination, and it has been steadily receding ever since.

"I never saw such thorough organization and intense feeling among our people as now exists. It is a certainty that Bryan cannot carry his precinct, ward, county, congressional district, or state. Mr. Bryan lives in Precinct A of the Fifth ward, and he has made his home there ever since he came to Lincoln. Men have been employed to poll the precinct and in taking the poll men were sent who would make a careful and accurate poll from house to house, and the name and politics of every voter have been reported and verified.

"The result shows an overwhelming majority against Mr. Bryan. It was as follows:

"McKinley, 210; Bryan, 71; doubtful, 11."

When Mr. Manley read the letter he remarked:

"That's the way things are going with us. The country is in no danger."

WEIRD FAMILY LEGEND.

The Goldsmids Said to Have Been Strangely Shadowed.

Mr. H. W. Lucy, in his article "From Behind the Speaker's Chair," in the Strand Magazine, tells a creepy story in connection with the Goldsmid family. For more than a hundred years, it was said, a fatal spell hung over the Goldsmids. Toward the close of the eighteenth century there died in London the Rabbi de Falk, who enjoyed high reputation as a seer. He left to Aaron Goldsmid, great-great-grandfather of the late member for St. Pancras, a sealed packet, with injunctions that it was to be carefully preserved, but never opened. The old Dutch merchant who founded the branch of the Goldsmid family in this country was warned that as long as this order was obeyed so long would the Goldsmids flourish like a young bay tree. If it were disregarded ill fortune would fall all time dog the footsteps of the race. Aaron Goldsmid kept the packet inviolate for some years. One day, curiously becoming ungovernable, he opened it. When his servant came to call him he was found dead. Aaron Goldsmid left a large portion of his fortune to two sons, Benjamin and Abraham. These went into business on the London stock exchange and vastly increased their patrimony. Benjamin founded a naval college and performed many acts of less known generosity. He lived long, but the curse of the cabalist overtook him. Enormously rich, the delusion that he would die a pauper fastened upon him and to avoid such a conclusion of the matter he, on April 15, 1808, being in his fifty-fifth year, died by his own hand. Two years later his brother Abraham, being concerned in a ministerial loan of fourteen millions, lost his nerve, blundered and bungled, sunk into a condition of hopeless despondency, and on Sept. 28, 1810, a day on which a sum of half a million was due from him, he was found dead in his room. The fortunes of the family were restored by Isaac Goldsmid, nephew of the hapless brothers and grandson of the founder of the English house. Like all the Goldsmids, Isaac was a man of generous nature and philanthropic tendencies. With him it seemed that the curse of the cabalist had run its course. It is true that before he died he lapsed into a state of childishness. But he had at that time passed the limit of four-score years, after which, as one of the kings of his race wrote centuries back, man's days are but labor and sorrow. Isaac Goldsmid was succeeded in his fortune and his baronetcy by his son Francis, on whom the curse of the cabalist seemed to fall when he was fatally mangled between the rails at Waterloo station.

WEARS A LITTLE TOY CROWN.

Only Once Has Queen Victoria Appeared in Public Regally Bediamonded.

Queen Victoria wears a little toy crown for an hour or two once a year, at a drawing-room or a royal wedding, and knows little of sovereign's insomnia, says an exchange. And when she goes abroad, whatever else she may take, her majesty's most valuable jewelry is all left at home securely guarded. Only once has the queen appeared regally bediamonded in a foreign country with "everything handsome" about her. On her state visit to Napoleon III. and the Empress Eugenie, Queen Victoria made a brave display of jewelry, and Parisians were forced to admit that, though they could alter some of her majesty's bonnets to advantage, they could not better her Koh-i-Noor brooch or some of her other ornaments.

For many a year Queen Victoria has given up appearances, and gone in for comfort; and those foreigners whom she delights to honor by long visits must not expect to see the "countess of Balmoral" in professionally royal attire.

Her own subjects sigh sometimes that their beloved sovereign often dresses for walks and drives in a style which might suggest that her income was a very poor one; and that when she does put on a queenly gown, with sundry jewels from her rich collection only a few favored individuals are allowed to see her.

Since the prince consort died his august widow has worn out but two really royal toilets in connection with a bonnet, though many occasions have come and gone when her majesty's outdoor attire could easily have corresponded with her rank.

Veracity.

The virtue of veracity is so indispensable an element in the composition of a Christian gentleman that neither splendid talents, nor engaging manners, nor benevolence of disposition, nor self-denial, nor all these qualities combined, nor even the practice of religious exercises can atone for its absence.—Gibbons.

NEWS OF FULTON VILLAGE.
Personal Gossip, and General News Notes From "Catfish Creek."

Fulton, Sept. 11—Robert Murwin, who has been sick the past week, is better. Go to the Rock county fair next week; it will be the best in years. Miss Nellie Rumrill, of Jamesville, is the guest of Miss Georgie Gove, Mrs. Lizzie Stone spent the last of the week in Jamesville. George and Addie Terreyck, of Center, called upon a few of their friends here, Sunday. George Murwin returned from Monroe, Saturday evening. He is in Mineral Point this week, and will be at the Rock county fair next week. His colts are doing well. Baby Bunting has a box of 27, and is liable to do much better. Mrs. Minnie Lyntz gave a birthday party to a large number of Zella's friends, last Monday. A delightful time was had for all. The fair will be a success, if all Rock county sets out to make it such, as they surely will. Miss Mable Hopkins' entertainment proved so pleasing to all who attended, that by request of many, it will be repeated at the Ford next Monday evening. All are invited. Don't miss it for the drill alone is worth the admission. Fred Bliven has gone to Magnolia for a visit. Miss Blanch Schofield is visiting relatives in Minneapolis and will be absent some little time. John Hill of Jamesville, was in town Wednesday and Thursday of this week, calling upon his many friends. J. L. and M. F. Green has been shipping a large number of cases of tobacco from their warehouses here this week. The picnic was not as largely attended as it would have been if rain had not set in. Those who did go had a fine time and lots of fun.

Fulton in Texas.
Fort Worth, Tex., Sept. 11.—The republican convention reconvened at 10 o'clock Thursday with a full representation of delegates present. The committee on resolutions recommended the appointment of a committee of three with plenary power to confer with a similar committee of gold-standard democrats and populists looking to an amicable division of congressmen from the various Texas districts.

Benton Harbor Victim's Funeral.
Benton Harbor, Mich., Sept. 11.—The city was again decked in mourning Thursday and the doors of her business houses locked, owing to the death and burial of Will McCormick, the twelfth victim of the opera-house fire. He died of gangrene, and was buried under the auspices of the firemen. The procession was over half a mile in length. The other injured men are still in a critical condition.

A BOLD ROBBERY
NEAR OCONOMOWOC
FAMILY, BOUND, GAGGED, AND $6000 STOLEN.

Masked Men Do a Job That Would Be a Credit to Jesse James in His Palmy Days—Sunday Base Ball Players Under Arrest—Jail Delivery.

Oconomowoc, Wis. Sept. 11.—[Special.]—Information was received here today, of a most daring robbery committed on the premises of Charles Streigert, a farmer living north of Monterey. Three men, with their faces covered with black cloth, entered the premises; knocked down the members of the family; bound them; and then, by means of threats, compelled a girl sixteen years of age, to conduct them through the house. There was $6000 in money in the house which the robbers must have known about. They demanded that the girl tell them where it was hidden. This she refused to do, although they threatened to beat her brains out with a hatchet. After searching the house the robbers found and secured the money on a left. The work was done in the most approved dime novel style, after the manner of the Jesse James gang.

Base Ball Players Arrested.
Oshkosh, Sept. 11.—[Special.]—Rev. A. J. Benjamin, as president of the Sabbath Observance association, today caused warrants to be issued against three members of the Oshkosh base ball team, and three members of the Green Bay team, for playing base ball here last Sunday, thereby violating the state law. Rev. Mr. Benjamin requested warrants for all the members of both teams, but District Attorney Quattermass objected, on account of the expense. As a consequence, but three warrants were issued.

THE AUTHOR OF "ATALANTIS."
She Achieved Both Fame and Notoriety in Her Day.

A writer that floated high on the rising tide of realism and in her lifetime achieved both notoriety and reputation was Mrs. Delariviere Manley, says the Cornhill Magazine. Her importance in her own world is attested by the frequent occurrence of her name in contemporary literature and the notice taken of her by men of letters. For her tragedy of "Lucius" Prior wrote the epilogue; in Pope's charming burlesque, when the baron carries off "the sacred hair," he assigns to himself an immortality equal to that of Mrs. Manley's famous budget of scandal. "As long as 'Atalantis' shall be read, so long my honor, name and praise shall live."

In Swift's "Journal to Stella" there are noticeably frequent references to Mrs. Manley—not always complimentary, for he thinks ill both of her spelling and of her personal appearance. Under date of Jan. 26, 1711-12, he writes: "Poor Mrs. Manley, the author, is very ill of a dropsy and sore leg; the printer tells me he is afraid she cannot live long. I am heartily sorry for her; she has very generous principles for one of her sort and a great deal of good sense and invention. She is about 40, very homely, and very fat." An earlier passage in the Journal testifies to her readiness of pen: "I forgot to tell you that yesterday was sent to me a narrative printed, with all the particulars of Harley's stabbing. I had not time to do it myself, so I sent my hints to the author of 'Atalantis,' and she has cooked it into a six-penny pamphlet in her own style." Of this once well-known writer there is little good to say; her life was vicious and so are her books. Finding people eager to read what was true or might be true, she fed "the better vulgar" with a succession of scandalous memoirs and very indecent stories. Her "Atalantis" (1709), a grossly immoral book, which satirized with merciless freedom many of the best-known personages of the day, had a great vogue, its prurient gossip attracting readers with a taste for literary carrion. It brought the author within reach of the law, but the legal proceedings failed of their intent, both retrospective and prospective, and Mrs. Manley continued to make highly seasoned revelation about herself and about other people.

Paper Telegraph Poles.
Paper telegraph poles are the latest development of the art of making paper useful. These poles are made of paper pulp, in which borax, tallow, etc., are mixed in small quantities. The paper poles are said to be lighter and stronger than those of wood, and to be unaffected by sun, rain, dampness, or any of the other causes which shorten the life of a wooden pole.

Barbarous.
Wiping the gore from his glittering weapon the desperate-looking young man seized a piece of cloth and removed as well as he could all traces of his horrible work from the face of his victim.
Then he straightened himself up, pushed the unhappy wretch away from him, and in a voice of thunder called out:
"Next!"
He was the apprentice. — Chicago Tribune.

A Cipher Without a Rim.
"Do you believe in the transmigration of souls?" asked her husband.
"I do," she replied firmly.
He laughed jeeringly.
"You do, do you?" he said. "I suppose you knew all about it, eh? Maybe you'll tell me what I was before I took my present body and married you?"
"I don't know," she said, hesitatingly.
"I don't know, but I think that you were the middle part of a doughnut."—Chicago Tribune.

They Tumbled.
The scorchers, fast as he could pedal, bumped into Deacon Brace;
The scorchers fell from off his saddle, The deacon fell from grace.

THE TIE THAT BINDS.

Benedict—Why don't you get married, old man? The matrimonial knot is as easy tied as that one you're putting in your cravat.
Bachelor—Yep; that's a good simile; one generally gets it in the neck with both!—N. Y. World.

Not Flattering.
"When I grow up," said little Jack to his father, "I'm going to be just like you, papa."
"Good boy to say so," said his father.
"Well, I mean it," said Jack. "What a jolly time you do have with mamma always about to wait on you!"—Answers.

Trifled with Her Feelings.
"My husband played me a mean trick yesterday."
"What was it?"
"He told me folding-beds were selling down town at 49 cents each."
"Well?"
"When I got down there they were hammocks."—Chicago Record.

From His Point of View.
"Of course," he said, "if Sairy's mind is so set, we'll have to get her a bicycle, but, darn me!"
He paused and scowled angrily.
"—if I see the use of payin' $100 just fer an excuse fer wearin' pants."—Chicago Post.

A Correct Diagnosis.
Young Physician (to patient)—Your dyspepsia comes, I think, sir, from too high living. You are a very high liver, are you not?
Patient—Yes, sir; I live on the top floor of a New York flat.—Bay City Chat.

Cleared Up.
Crosby—I understand that old Cashley's daughter has eloped with his coachman.
Gregory—What! Why, she was engaged to marry me!
Crosby—Oh, then, that accounts for it.—Cleveland Leader.

Rough Goods Lead.

As was indicated early, the rough and semi-rough fabric remains master of the situation in lines of colored dress cloths browns, blues, (including the new deift blue) and greens are most sought for, although many dark reds toned down with black effects are in evidence. Recent arrivals of good things in these fabrics to retail at 50c, 62 1/2c, 75c and 87 1/2c, makes our dress goods counters an attractive place, for separate skirts, serges, wide wales, and storm serges are good and we show many values from 25 cents to $1.

Blacks are particularly strong...

They are shown in a varied assortment of design and weave: Jacquard patterns on wool and mohair grounds are numerous; Lizard weaves are one of the season's "fads" and the disguised Crepon effects are favorably received. Many special values in all the novelties as well as in all lines of the staple serges, henriettas, &c.

VOTE FOR GOLD AND YOUR JOB

Wisconsin Railway Employees Endorse McKinley and Seefeld.

APPEAL ISSUED BY A MILWAUKEE COMMITTEE.

Chicago & Northwestern, Chicago, Milwaukee & St. Paul, and Wisconsin Central Men Canvass the Situation and Issue a Circular Signed By Fifty-one Conductors, Engineers, Firemen and Trainmen of All Political Parties—Text of the Document.

As has been said before, the railroad men are for sound money almost to a man, and the following circular, which is signed by fifty-one railroad men regardless of party, shows conclusively that the statement is correct. The letters, copies of which have been sent to local employees, reads as follows:

Milwaukee, Wis., Sept. 5, 1896.—
TO THE RAILROAD EMPLOYEES OF WISCONSIN:—It is well known to you that much object on has been raised by railroad employees to the candidacy of Mr. Edward Seefeld, for governor. One of our objections was his action on the co-employee bill in 1887. Another was that it was rumored that his candidacy was dictated by men objectionable to railroad employees and opposed to their interests. Feeling, however, that the National Issues this year, namely, the question of sound money or free silver, are of much greater importance to us; and view of the fact that the ticket upon which Mr. Seefeld's name appears, is that of sound money, a meeting was arranged between Mr. Seefeld and a committee of railroad employees composed of representatives from the Chicago and Northwestern, the Chicago, Milwaukee and St. Paul and Wisconsin Central railroads. After a full and careful investigation by this committee of Mr. Seefeld's course in the past with reference to our interests, and listening to his explanation of the same; also, to statements made by prominent men not objectionable to railroad employees, and in whom we have confidence, that his candidacy was not dictated by the men unfriendly to our interests; we desire to say that Mr. Seefeld's explanation as to his course in the past is reasonable, and was not in our opinion, prompted by any intention on his part to favor corporations, or from any unfriendly feeling towards us.

As assurance as to his future action, should be elected, where our interests are concerned, we believe are entitled to our entire confidence. This being the case, and feeling that should our grand old state fail to be registered on the side of sound money, the cause may be lost, we earnestly urge you, if possible, to give your support to this ticket.

This is no question of republican or democrat, but of our own protection as wage-earners. Vote for sound money and in defense of our own wages.

Let a railroad man bury all personal feeling and devote every energy to the support of this ticket. It represents the one hundred cent dollar; protection for the industries which make freight of our roads; protection and reciprocity which furnish markets for our western farmers.

It means to us FULL TIME and FULL TRAINS and not four days a week and empty coaches as at present. Let us stand solidly together as we have in the past. The railroad vote in this state is a power. Boys! Let us use it wisely!

CAN GO TO CANTON AND SEE M'KINLEY

LOCAL REPUBLICANS CAN GET A VERY CHEAP RATE.

The Round Trip Fare Will Be But $8.15, and the Party Will Go Through Without Change of Cars And Be Gone But Forty Eight Hours.

Do you want to go to Canton, Ohio, and meet Major McKinley, the next president of the United States? If so, you can do so, and the expense will be very small.

Twelve dollars will cover all cost. Railroad fare will be but $8.15 for the round trip.

This very low rate is offered to Janesville and Rock county by the Pennsylvania road. If forty people will buy tickets, a rate of $8.15 for the round trip will be made, and the company will send a special coach to this city to carry the people.

The coach will be attached to the train leaving Janesville at 11.30 a. m. and Chicago will be reached at 9 p. m. and at the World's Fair City. The car will be switched off and attached to another train that would land the party at Canton at 8 o'clock the next morning.

The same car will take the people out of Canton that evening; reach Chicago in the morning, and be back in Janesville at 12:40 o'clock.

Thus you can go to Canton without change of cars for the low fare of $8.15 and be absent from Janesville only forty-eight hours.

The only requirement is that forty people go. Then they can select their own date, and the special coach, etc., will be at once forthcoming.

The Pennsylvania road had nine similar excursions into Canton today.

BEAT THE WOODS FOR CRAZY MAN

Paul Johnson, Who Escaped From the County Asylum, Not Yet Caught.

A dozen or more men are now scouring the woods in the vicinity of the county buildings, looking for Paul Johnson, who escaped from 'the insane asylum' night before last, but so far without success.

Johnson was sent here from Oshkosh, with half a dozen other patients, but a few days ago, and was assigned to a room on the second floor. He made his escape by squeezing between the bars on the window, and making a rope of his bedding, slid down to the earth. The officials of the hospital knew nothing about his escape until they found the sheets swaying about in the breeze the next morning.

Johnson had no clothing except his night garments, but it is now thought that he forced an entrance to the laundry, and secured some before he left.

Men were at once sent out to search for Johnson. They beat the woods all the way to this city, and searched every place where he could have hidden himself, but without success.

Another party was sent northward, and searched the woods between the hospital and the Indian Ford, but saw no trace of the missing patient. Men were also sent out on bicycles, and the police of the county notified of Johnson's escape.

In all probability the bars on the windows will have to be changed, as it does not seem to be difficult for the patients to get through them.

The asylum authorities, know very little about Johnson, as he had arrived but a few days before, but they hardly think that he is a dangerous man.

THURSDAY, SEPT. 17 IS M'KINLEY DAY

WILL BE REPUBLICAN DAY AT THE COUNTY FAIR.

Indiana's Eloquent Ex-Governor Will Make the Principal Speech and His Address Will Be Worth Hearing—Democracy's Date and Orator Not Yet Settled Upon.

Next Thursday, Sept. 17, will be "McKinley day" at the Rock county fair, and speeches will be made for honest money, protection and reciprocity.

Ex-Governor William Conback of Indiana, will be the principal speaker, and will talk of the issues of the day. Governor Conback is one of the well known public men of the republican faith, and is a pleasing and powerful speaker. His address will be worth going many miles to hear, and doubtless the attendance will be very large.

The selecting of "political days," at the county fair is a new feature, and one that will prove popular. Secretary Watt said today that the man to speak from the democratic standpoint had not yet been selected, but that he would make the announcement as soon as he knew who would be sent here.

National Committeeman Henry C. Payne, of Chicago, assigned Ex-Gov. Conback to speak, and recommends him highly as an effective campaigner in his correspondence with Chairman Vankirk.

Remember the date—September 17—and attend the fair on "McKinley day" at any cost. You will certainly hear something to your advantage.

The police in both this city and Beloit have been notified to be on the lookout.

VELVET TRIMMINGS.

In Bands and Straps, Collars, Belts and Tabliers.

Robes of embroidered lawn are having a great success, the latest idea being to set them off by collars, bows and belts of black or very dark colored velvet. Velvet ornaments and accessories are becoming more and more numerous as the season advances and may be considered accessories of a velvet winter in the matter of trimmings. Dark velvet is used in contrast with light tones of cloth, lawn, silk and other goods.

SACK.

and its future vogue is assured. We are to have velvet on hats, toques, gowns, petticoats and wraps, short paletots—that is, the straight English sacks that are to be hideously fashionable—and jackets. On bodices velvet will form all the close part of the sleeve. Straps and bows will be composed of velvet; also collars, belts, cuffs, corselets and boleros.

Velvet of different widths, disposed in bands and framing the tablier of the skirt, will make a very acceptable decoration and will afford opportunity for great variety, as the bands are to be unequal in size and will give various effects according to the relation in which the different lengths are placed. The vogue of velvet will accent that of buttons, since the ends of the velvet ribbon used as trimming will be generally fastened and finished by fancy or antique buttons. While the subject of buttons is uppermost, it may be well to state that really fine buttons, antiques or fine imitations, of medium size, will be the favorite ornamentation of wide corselets, which will close by really buttoning. The same sort of button will ornament the seam of the sleeve to the elbow and will drape the shoulder bows.

Today's illustration shows one of the hideous little sacks that Paris threatens to make universally fashionable during the fall and winter. It is of light gray or beige cloth, finished with stitching, and closes with large pearl buttons at the left side. The cuffs and flaring collar are of black velvet, and there are three pockets, variously disposed.

THIN FABRICS.

Etamines Over Contrasting Silk—Fichus of Mousseline de Soie.

Pique has had a royal time of it this season. Not only in white and pale tones, but in neutral and dark shades it has composed fashionable tailor costumes. It has been striped, flowered and embroidered and has figured on ornamental as well as useful occasions.

Linen, too, has received an abundant share of attention—more, probably, than has pique. Thin linen lawns, in fact, the "linen" in cream shades, so well known now, has been ubiquitous, whether in striped, plaided, openwork, embroidered or plain styles. As a matter of fact, however pretty it may be, it is less useful than pique, as linen has a peculiar, stringy, lank quality which asserts itself after the first one or two wearings, while cotton is comparatively rigid and substantial, if not so cool to the touch. Linen mixed with silk is one of the newest of the thin materials and has a figure printed on the warp of the goods, giving the same fade effect that is seen in chine printed silks. However, one might as well have a pure silk as one of these mixtures, which are by no means cheap and are less effective than the real silk fabrics.

Etamines made over linings of contrasting silk are one of the features of the season. By the judicious combination of tones charming changeable effects are obtained, the artistic eye divining by instinct just how tints which would seem to the uninitiated to be unsuited to each other may be put together to produce a pleasing union.

Today's sketch shows a costume for a girl 13 years old. It is of black taffeta. The skirt is plain and the bodice close fitting, the collar being straight and the plain sleeves slightly bouffant at the top. A Marie Antoinette fichu of mauve mousseline de soie, bordered with a double frill of the same material, covers the shoulders and crosses at the waist in front, passing around to the back, where it falls in long ends on the skirt. This costume is suitable for mourning. JUDIC CHOLLET.

Nervous Children.

A New York chiropodist says that nervous children are apt to have corns. This is oftentimes because such clench the fingers slightly, almost imperceptibly, and are apt to draw up the toes at the same time. It is a slight but frequent movement, and it cramps the toes and finally irritates the tender surface at the joints. He emphasizes again that it is not broad shoes so much as long shoes that should be worn by growing children, and asserts that the pointed toe shoe, against which such a catalogue of indictments has been brought, is by no means such unhygienic wear as others more commended.

A CYCLING PHENOMENON.

The Remarkable Performances of a Girl of Denver.

Among the women of pluck and energy in Denver is a dainty little Mrs. Rhinehart, who is supposed to be the world at large by her wheel exploits upon the wheel. Her husband is the wife of one of Denver's best photographers. She is a native of California, having lived in California for five years. On Sept. 20, 1896, Mrs. Rhinehart took her first ride, and in doing that she enjoyed it. She is a wheel. Dec. 14 she made a century, and when April 1897 she had ridden three centuries, she was accompanied by her husband, had ridden to Mexico upon her wheel.

Up to the present date Mrs. Rhinehart has ridden 41 centuries in all.

during July gained a worldwide fame by riding ten centuries in ten consecutive days. She followed that July 22 with a double century, which she accomplished in 20 hours and 20 minutes, riding the last 40 miles in darkness, mud and rain. Feeling confident that she could lower her record for 200 miles, Mrs. Rhinehart started out on the morning of Aug. 7 at 3:25 and in 7 hours and 50 minutes covered a distance of 102 miles. After resting 30 minutes she started once more and accomplished the second 102 miles in 9 hours and 45 minutes, making the entire 204 miles in 17 hours and 35 minutes. This was done entirely for her own gratification and pleasure, yet Mrs. Rhinehart made a complete registration of her arrivals and departures. If her feat were to be questioned, she could produce the necessary affidavits. She recently rode nine miles, from Laramie to Red Butte, Wyo., up hill all the way, in 39 minutes. She carried the packet for that stage in the relay race across the continent.

Mrs. Rhinehart's record is one that is not equaled by many male bicyclists, and probably by no lady rider in the country. She rides purely for pleasure. She has never cared to break any record and has refused to enter contests. She is an easy, graceful rider, averaging 18 miles an hour, coming out fresh and untired at the end of trips that few could endure. Her fastest riding is always done near the finish. When she began riding, Mrs. Rhinehart was an invalid. She is now the picture of health and laughs most heartily over the dismal prediction that she is killing herself riding. She is a slight young woman, with large brown eyes, golden hair, and is a perfect gypsy in color. Her riding costume is a short divided skirt, sweater, golf hose and low shoes. During her long rides she is particular that her clothing shall be very loose, so that every muscle may have full play. —Detroit Free Press.

An Autumn Waist.

An autumn round waist suitable for plain or fancy cloth or silk is made over a closely fitted lining, the back showing no seams, with small overlapping plaits at the waist. The front is shirred at the waist line with a box plait in the center that does not droop at all at the belt, with five narrower plaits at each side, forming a yoke effect. The sleeves are plaited into armholes, and are moderately full, but with no stiff interlining. The decoration consists of a fitted pointed ceinture boned on the sides and at the front and back of the pointed girdle, a high collar with velvet points flaring out from the straight band. The box plait down the front has the upper portion covered with a pointed velvet tab. Small gold or silver buttons are used to finish the velvet decorations. The skirt is cut with seven gores, narrower in outline than those of seasons past, but with a slight flare still left in the lower half. —New York Post.

Handkerchiefs.

There is always a right and a wrong way to carry one's handkerchief, as to do everything else. Just at present the only proper way is to tuck the little square of linen and lace in one's sleeve at the wrist, allowing it to fall and partially conceal the hand, something after the manner of the pretty wrist flounces on the new sleeve. Do not commit so marked a breach of good form as to tuck your handkerchief in at any part of your bodice, but if you want to get the full ornamental value from its pretty border of point de venise or Irish lace, no more effectual method could be devised than this newest fashion. The single consideration, however, that it is a new idea is perhaps having more weight with the majority of women, who are rapidly converting the fashion into a fad. —Philadelphia Times.

Three Strong Characters.

Mrs. Clara C. Hoffman, president of the Missouri W. C. T. U., Mrs. Louise S. Rounds, president of the Illinois W. C. T. U., and Mrs. Helen M. Barker, national treasurer, were all born in St. Lawrence county, N. Y., within a few miles of each other. It took the rocky soil of old St. Lawrence to send forth three such strong, rugged characters. New York is proud of these three of its many gifted daughters. —Exchange.

THE SHAKERS' IDEAS OF MEDICINE.

Now a days when a man goes to his doctor, he is usually told that he has some unheard of disease with a long name, and when he leaves the office he does not know whether it is St. Vitus Dance or consumption that is gradually undermining his health.

It is therefore refreshing to talk with the Shakers, for their very simplicity commands confidence and respect, and we have the further satisfaction of knowing that they have devoted themselves to the study of disease and its cure for more than a hundred years.

The venerable old man whom the writer saw was only too glad to discuss his pet subject. He said that strange as it might seem, very few doctors realized that three-quarters of the most prevalent diseases were all attributable to faulty digestion.

He then went on to say that a child of average intelligence knows that putrid meat or decaying vegetables are poisonous, and must be avoided, and yet these same foods, even if taken into the stomach in the freshest possible condition soon decompose unless digested and absorbed.

In such cases the resulting poisons enter the system, when aches and pains, weakness and debility soon follow as a natural consequence.

It was recognition of this that led the Shakers to devote their energies to the perfection of a product which would stimulate the digestive organs and assist them to perform their proper work.

The first symptom of disordered digestion is loss of appetite, and the Shaker Digestive Cordial is wonderfully efficient in supplying any deficiency in this respect, at the same time it relieves all distress after eating. Furthermore, as was carefully explained by our venerable friend, it is absolutely harmless.

Better evidence of the Shakers' confidence in it could not be found, than in the fact that they have placed 10 cent sample bottles in the hands of all druggists, assured that if once tried it will produce such immediate and marked benefit that it will be continued.

Stoves and Politics.

Politicians may be able to promise this country a change in the financial system, or a change in the tariff, but

They Cannot Change the Seasons

It is just as certain to be cold this winter as it has been hot this summer, and people will want stoves and not political speeches when the thermometer drops to zero.

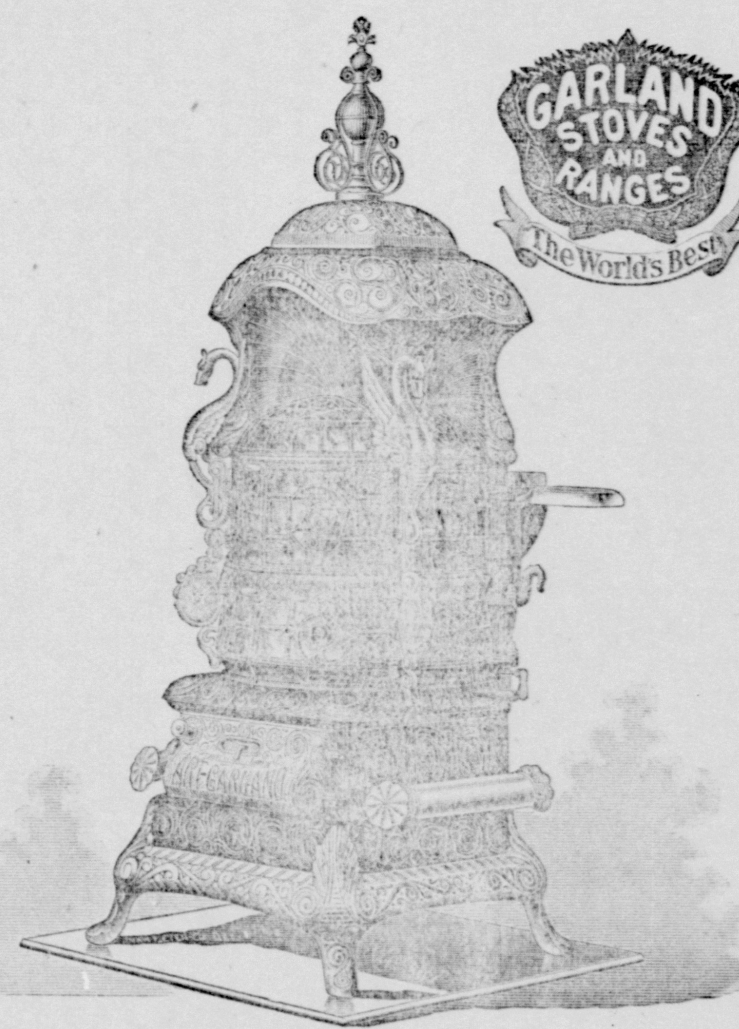

Argument may make some people warm, and perhaps hot-headed, but it is not as effective as the steady glow of a good coal or wood-burning stove when the air grows chilly.

Let politics rest a little while, and take time now to study up the advantages for the coming season of the host of new

After a Record.
"Strange," said the man with the strong cigar, absent-mindedly.
"What's strange?" asked the man with the meerschaum.
"I was thinking of a friend of mine who claims to have found an absolutely perfect fountain pen."
"Always writes, never drips ink and never gets out of order?"
"That's what he says."
The man with the meerschaum pipe shook his head.
"What do you think of it?" he asked.
"I hardly know what to think of it. He's joined no liars' club that I know of and yet everything indicates that he is working for a record."—Chicago Post.

An Open Question.
"Who planned their wedding trip?" he asked.
"She did," replied his wife.
"Ah!" he ejaculated. "With perfect love comes perfect trust. How sure she must be of him!"
"Or else," his wife suggested, "she thinks she may want to get rid of him."
And together they read over again the part of the groom's letter beginning: "Thence we go to Oklahoma."—Chicago Tribune.

An Apt Quotation.
"Then, little wifey, you really suspect me!"
His voice faltered. He sighed deeply and buried his face in the pillow.
"Yes, I do; and with good reason!" she replied, sternly.
"Ah! I had always believed that I had as good a wife as Caesar's!"
"So you have—haven't you?"
"No, dear; Caesar's wife was above suspicion!"—Town Topics.

Had Been Very Moderate.
"I should fine you for contempt," said the judge, as he glared at the lawyer who had aroused his ire.
"With all due respect to your honor," responded the attorney, "I think that you should not. I have been particularly careful not to express my true feelings toward the court."—Detroit Free Press.

A Plot.
"I guess I've found a way to take the conceit out of that amateur actress," remarked the girl who is not always good-natured.
"How did you do it?"
"Introduced her to an amateur photographer who wanted to take her picture."—Washington Star.

How the Miracle Was Worked.
"Henry," said Mrs. Gloomip, at dinner, looking down at her watch, but speaking to Mr. Gloomip on the other side of the table, "my watch hasn't varied a second in a week."
"Remarkable!" said Mr. Gloomip.
"How did you get it to vary so little?"
"I broke the mainspring."—Tit-Bits.

Patient—And you attribute my trouble to smoking?
Doctor—Yes.
Patient—Oh, doctor, must I give up my cigars?

There is no joy in this world equal to the happiness of motherhood.
A woman's health is her dearest possession. Good looks, good times, happiness, love and its continuance, depend on her health. Almost all of the sickness of women is traceable directly or indirectly to some derangement of the organs distinctly feminine. Troubles of this kind are often neglected because a very natural and proper modesty keeps women away from physicians, whose insistence upon examination and local treatment is generally as useless as it is common. Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription will do more for them than 99 doctors in 100. It will do more than the hundredth doctor can unless he prescribes it. It is a prescription of Dr. R. V. Pierce's, who for 30 years has been chief consulting physician of the World's Dispensary and Invalids' Hotel, at Buffalo, N. Y.
